DEDICATION

Progress is the keynote of our age. Highland High School denotes progress in education. Since the future grows out of the present, the best preparation for good work tomorrow is to do good work today. The best rule for success is to keep growing in industry, refinement and character. Such growth is the chief aim of Highland High School.

We affectionately and respectfully dedicate this first volume of "The Highlander" to our school.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Preamble to the Constitution of the Student Council

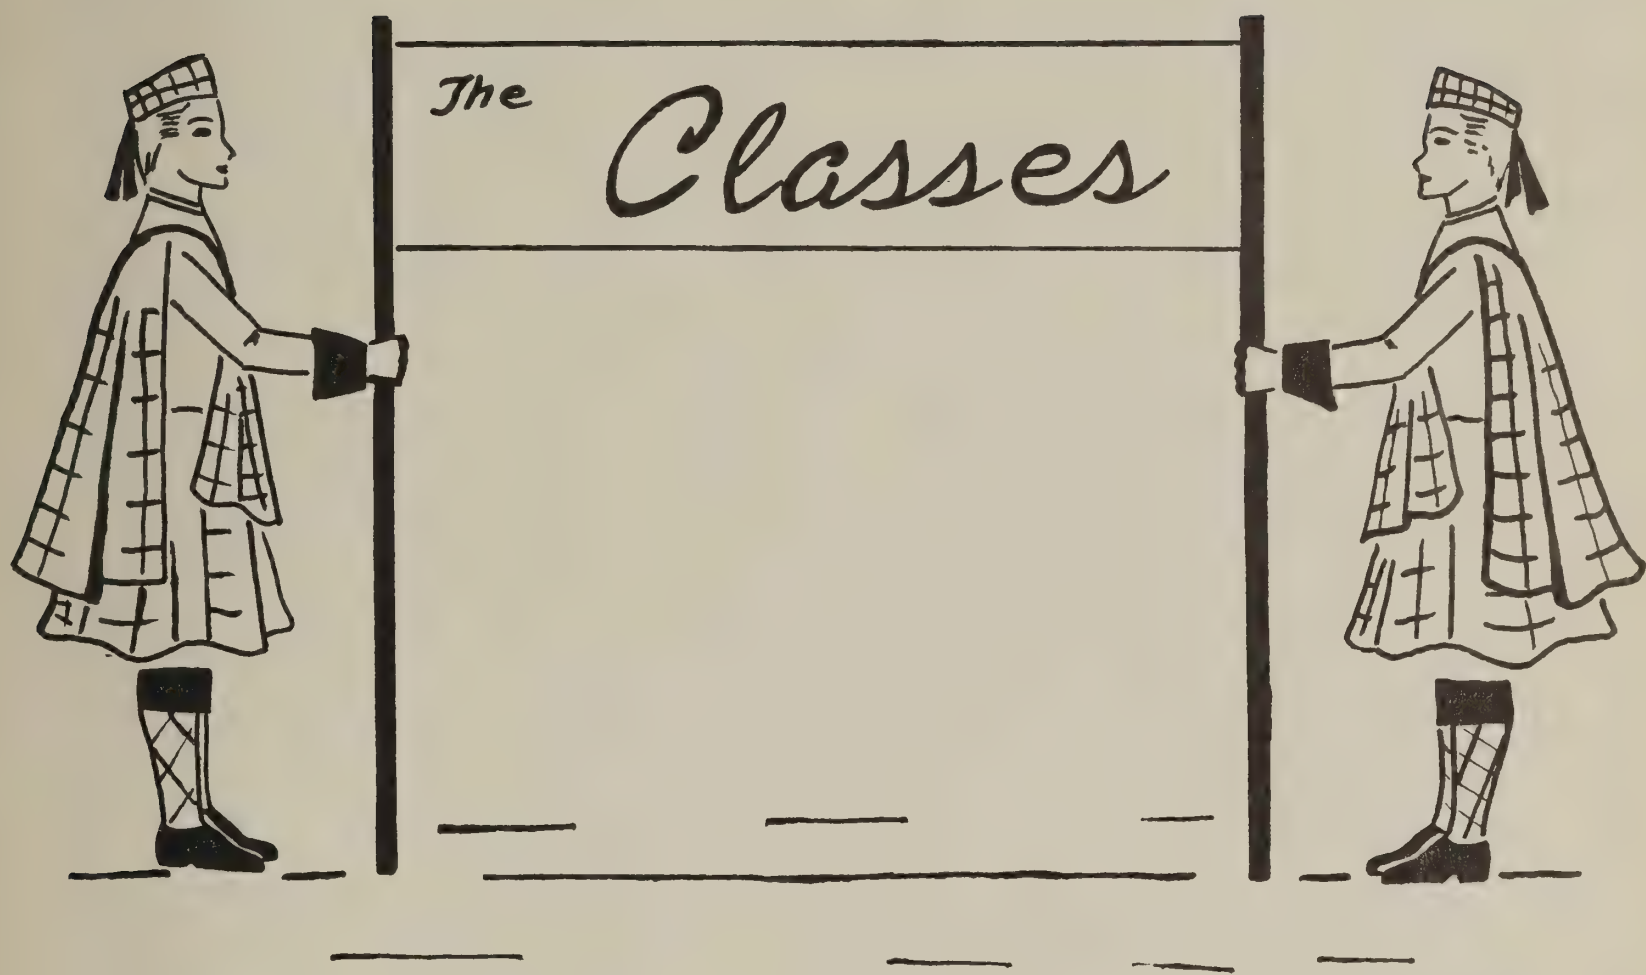

We, the students of Highland High School, in order to provide for student participation in school government, establish better understanding between faculty and students, afford training in citizenship, and insure a sincere respect for law and order, do establish and ordain this constitution for student government in Highland High School.

This year we of the student council feel we have accomplished to a great extent the purposes of our constitution.

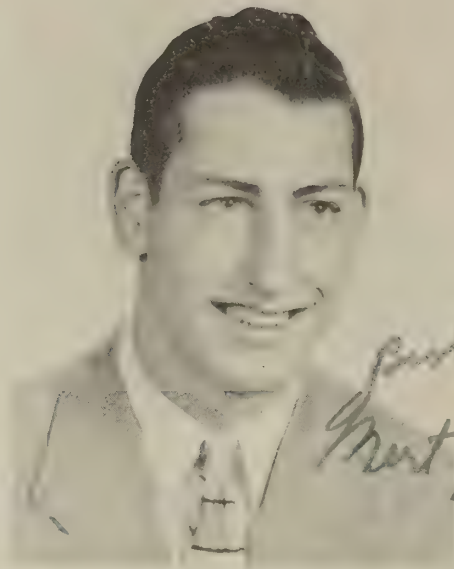

Our organization consists of the officers, Peter Gee, President; Janice Wagner, Vice President; Janice Duncan, Secretary; Bill Bramley, Treasurer; presidents of all student organizations, plus representatives and their alternates. We appreciate the work and assistance that Mrs. Anastos, our advisor, has given us.

A noon program was set up to provide entertainment for pupils during their lunch period. We have helped prepare better pep meetings and we arranged a room decorating contest during the holiday season. The year-book this year is also sponsored by this organization.

We have sponsored the Homecoming Dance and the May Dance each of which was a tremendous success. We also sponsored a carnival in March. With these events we hope to be able to send a delegate to the National Convention of Student Councils.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Ruth,

I had the most wonderful time over my summer vacation. I spent every day on the beach. I had more difficulty getting to the resort than you could ever imagine. I got everything all packed up and went to load the car. I got out to the garage and much to my surprise, I found the car gone. So I took a trolley down to the police station to report the theft and found out the chief of police was none other than BILL FORTNEY. Well, he decided that I should call my husband, who was at work. While calling, I remembered he had taken the car to work just as he did every morning.

So the next day I started out on my trip. I got five miles from nowhere and I heard a funny thumping in the front of my car. I got out just to see one of my tires go flat. Luckily, I had my AAA card and I walked to the nearest house to call. It was the home of NANCY SCHWELGIN. She was very busy writing the World Almanac for the Zooloo head hunters of Africa. She said that she had learned how in Vasser College, where she spent one term with LUCY GOOD, who was taking up acrobatic dancing for a profession. I made my call and the man from AAA came out and it was RONNIE RICKBRODT. He had turned over a new leaf and was driving a 1910 Model T Ford. He fixed the tire and then I continued merrily on my way.

On the way, I stopped in the little town of Hanstake. I stopped at Smeltz's Salome Shop and there was LAURA-JEAN ARNOLD as head Butcheress. She told me that her old friend, HELEN BOLAS, was doing very well as a hat and dress designer at Mme. Picasso's shoe shop. She found out when she was reading the Nosey News of which PEGGY GREATHOUSE is the editor. She let me glance over it and I found out some pretty amazing things. MARGE SHOOK was training "would-be" tarzans to swing from grapevines. I read that ROSIE HARRIS was playing "Max" on Milton Berle's show. She was doing quite well at it. I also read that VINCE PISANO had auditioned for Arthur Godfrey's show and now he is one of the regulars on his Wednesday night show. I found out that our own JOAN STRALEY was down in Africa selling snow suits to the natives. Well after that I didn't have much time to get to my destination.

I went on and finally arrived at the beach. I just settled down when a side show came to the beach park. Lo and behold who do you think I saw next? Well LYNN LOWNSBURY was a midget in a giant show, and JOANNE FEES turned out to be a famous lady wrestler.

In the days that followed, I found many of my old friends on the beach just sunning themselves. WILBUR WILEY told me that he was teaching Charles Atlas courses. ALICE ROBINSON turned out to become an expert stuffer at the Mortuary Brothers Green Olive Co. BETTY REDER, who in her spare time figures calculus for Dr. Albert Einstein's private laboratory, was looking for JOAN PETH. She wanted Joan to teach her how to swim. You see, Joan has been teaching sailors to swim. She is an expert Life Guard now. She taught SHIRLEY CADY to swim. By the way, Shirley is now running the largest Lonely Hearts Club in the district.

You know Ruth, that I never was much of a dancer. I wanted to learn in the right way and I thought Arthur Murray's Dance Studio would be the right place. While MARTIN OLIVER, the head instructor, was teaching me the Samba, he told of someone else who had made good in the dancing profession. It turned out to be none other than MARVIN FARNSWORTH, accompanist at Mme. LaConga's Studio for children from one to three. His old flame, SHIRLEY FEICK was making a living by giving home demonstrations on "How to Keep Blonde Hair Really Blonde." I heard that she had a private secretary now. He was the world's champion on timed writings. His latest was 127 words per minute with only $\frac{1}{2}$ error. This speed demon is JOHNNY SOURS. When I learned to dance well, I decided to go to a big dance.

The dance was held at the Rockefeller Plaza where RONNIE CIAMMAICHELLA, the head butler, got a ticket for me on the sly. This was really a classical dance, but the thing that fascinated me most was the frail little harpist they had. I took one close look and found it to be Sir (if you please) LARRIMY STILES. It was a gorgeous sight. I ran into PETE GEE at the dance and he said he was now raising Holsteins. He doesn't understand how he could have ever stood those Jerseys. He was telling me about a few of his neighbors in the country who had been raising stock. One was SHIRLEY MARIE MYERS, who had a 20 acre duck pond, and MARGE BOTZ was another who now had 24,000 pigs. Then there was KEN MILLIGAN who had a 75 acre truck farm just raising lots and lots of vegetables. I guess, from what he said, DONNA SZYCHOWICZ, a proud home maker at the "Jiffy Build-A-House Co." lived 5 miles down the road. Next, I saw PAT BROWNING and she was helping her father sell Cadillac cars in a town near our old stamping grounds. MILDRED BUEHNER had taken up the occupation of head pretzel bender in the Yum-Yum Potato Chip Co.

Well by that time the music had died down and the soloist came out and it was LOLA JEAN FABRICIUS. She was one of the grandest Mezzo Soprano's I had heard in years. She was introduced by LOIS MULLET who, by the way, ran a reducing salon, was pinch-hitting for JANICE WAGNER. Janice was delivering the State of the Union speech. The president had laryngitis. I heard that BILL WINTER was in the crowd and he was a Justice of the Peace in the Ozarks. I myself didn't see him, but I did see NANCY SEARLES. She was then sinking (pardon) I mean singing light opera with Slim Whitman. Then I met my old friend SHIRLEY ANN MYERS. She was a telephone disconnector with the Bell-Vernon Telephone Company. She also said that ART NEHRENZ was the center with the Hartland World Runners.

Then JIM THOMPSON revealed his secret job that he was working for quite some time. He was the president's personal taste tester at the Will-Jack Dog Food Co. He was looking for DONALD STEELE, who was really out of town training for the Olympics. JUNE DAMON told me that on her way home from college where she is taking up bookkeeping, so she can keep track of all her little tax deductions when she gets married in the near future. She met RAY HOFSTETTER on his way to his flea circus. He says they aren't much trouble but once in a while, his troubles get into his hair. By this time I was getting pretty tired of renewing all my acquaintances, and I decided to go to the hotel and get a good night's rest. On the way I stopped to see JANET RODENBUCHER. I asked her where she had been and she told me that she was now employed by the Peabody Pickle Plant. BETTY PELOT also worked there in spare time because she was the editor of the Gushey-Gooey Romance magazine, and it kept her busy. She said that was nothing as compared to BILL SMITH who pasted skull and crossbones on Iodine bottles.

Well I got in fairly late and found the scrubwoman very busy with her chores. I looked again and discovered that was no scrubwoman! That was CAROL FOSTER, she was trying to find her key. She dropped it on the floor. While looking, she bumped heads with VIRGINIA SUMMERS, a garbage collector at Lakeside on Lake Erie, who had lost her key also. I was just exhausted and went to my room. It was about 3:30 and I had just fallen asleep when I heard the most horrible racket. It was SANDRA CHRISMAN. She had a new TV show, "Rise and Shine." Just imagine Rise and Shine at 3:30 in the morning. She was telling about her very happy friend, WILDA DAGUE who occupied her time knitting little things, for her Chaughau puppies. She was introduced by BILL BRAMLEY, who was the technician at WGETSSTEDS-TV.

Well Ruth, that is just about all except for one more item. Can you imagine where IRENE EASTON is? Well she is in Alaska selling iceboxes to the Eskimos. Can you simply imagine?

Well I'll write you again next year. See you soon.

Your faithful friend,

ALJAN

VARSIITY FOOTBALL

The Highland Hornets had a very successful football season in '52, winning seven games while dropping only one. Highland was undefeated in the Medina County Eleven-man Football League for the second consecutive year, winning the league championship two years in succession.

Our first game with Revere was postponed because of polio. We started out the season playing a tough Class A school—Elyria Catholic from Lorain County. We came out on top 19 to 14.

Our second game was with a rugged Butler team on Bellville's field. After a half time 0 to 0 score, Butler pulled away to score three touchdowns. The final score was 19 to 0, the only game we lost all year.

The next week we bounced back to win our first league game from Wakeman at Medina's field. The score was 54 to 6.

Our second league game was with Brunswick at Brunswick's field. The final score was 35 to 0.

In our fifth game we played Bellville at the Lodi field. The Highland Hornets came to their peak of the year in performance. We came out on top 28 to 12.

Next we played Seville at the Seville field. The Barbers held us to a scoreless tie at the half, but the Hornets again emerged away for a final score of 13 to 0. This was our third league game.

Our fourth league game was with Boston at Medina's field. We won by a score of 35 to 0.

Our last game of the season was played with Lodi at the Medina field. It was our Homecoming Game and Dad's Night. We emerged with a victory of 54 to 7, with each one of the seven seniors making a touchdown.

VARSDITY BASKETBALL

Our basketball team got off to a good start by winning it's first game without much trouble. We continued to win and at the end of the season finished with an impressive 16 to 0 record which was not equalled in the county. We captured first place in the league play by winning all our league games without a setback in eight games. One of the trophies at the lower right is the League Trophy, and the other is the County Class B Trophy, which were awarded to our team.

RESERVE TEAM

Second Row: Ralph Vitt, Charles Searles, Ronald Drillien, Kerwin Nye, Art Rebick, Dale Loomis.

Our Reserve team followed the example of the Varsity by becoming champions of the county reserve teams. They had twelve wins and three losses.

Activities

BAND

The band has an enrollment of forty-six. The officers elected to serve this year are as follows: President, Lola Jean Fabricius; Vice-President, Wilda Dague; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Morris; Reporter, Nancy Searles.

We are launching a campaign to raise money for new uniforms which we should have next year if we get the support of the public.

The program for this year has consisted of the following events: Shows at football games, the annual Christmas concert, which combined the efforts of the band and chorus, the annual Spring concert, and the annual Spring dance.

With the support gained from this program, the band will be wearing new uniforms and giving a more extensive and enjoyable program for your enjoyment next year.

There are also smaller organizations within the band including the pep band, the German band, the village band, and the brass sextet.

We appreciate the fine work Mr. Chris Carrino, our director, has done to improve and encourage the band. He has made it possible for us to attend such events as the Baldwin-Wallace Christmas concert, a band show at a football game, a movie of the life of John Phillip Sousa, and the Edwin Franko Goldman concert. We also wish to thank Mr. J. E. Mason for the fine work he has done with the majorettes.

G. A. A.

The Girls Athletic Association known as G. A. A. is an organization of students who participate and are interested in sports. There are fifty-four members in this club.

We try to bring the girls closer to school activities by a point system while at the same time it helps them get acquainted. The girls receive a certain number of points for each activity in which they participate or attend. They will receive an award if they gain enough points.

Miss Kollas is the advisor of our G. A. A. group.

F. T. A.

The Future Teachers of America Club is just getting its start in Medina County. The name given to the new county unit is the L. H. Babcock Club, and Highland has both charter members and a local club.

F. T. A. is an activity of the National Education Association, its purpose being to give interested students a chance to explore the teaching field. Our country club, under the direction of Mrs. Lizotte, has regular meetings, and carries on such projects as student teaching, aiding teachers in grading papers, and giving assemblies and teas.

The local club has as its sponsor, William Wagner, and the officers are Dorothy Donkin, President; Russell Sheppard, Vice-President and Program Chairman; Sandra Chrisman, Secretary; and Larry Wilson, Treasurer.
